

CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

Clients have a right to expect that information revealed in sessions not be disclosed without extraordinary justification. The conditions that justify the release of information and by law must be reported to the appropriate agencies are the following:

1. Knowledge of child abuse or neglect.
2. Knowledge of senior citizen abuse or neglect.
3. A client poses a serious risk of suicide and is an imminent danger to self.
4. A client poses a threat of imminent danger to another person.
5. A Judge, by issuance of a court order, may obtain information.
6. Report to law enforcement authorities knowledge of a felony that has been, or is being committed.

In other situations, signed authorization for release of information is required.
